President's report

Mike Ajango thanked members for a great season, and Brent thanked all who helped with its success, including officers, and volunteers who helped with marketing, pictures, history, sunshine, trailers, costumes, parties, emcees, and the librarian. Brent also commented that we may consider changing our costume attire next season. In other coming events, Brent is working with the Meyer regarding airflow on stage, and will add more history on the website.

Treasurer's Report

Gene Burmeister presented the financial report: There is $1200 in the checkbook and $24k in savings. We've been buying some new music, plus some percussion instruments. The financial statements will be published to members of the band after they're audited.

Meeting Business

Elections: Mary Eisenreich announced the candidates for the annual board member election (Mary Eisenreich, Chris Rossmiller, Lynn Urquhart-Belongia, Sharon Hassel, and Gerry Kruse), and Brent asked for any nominations from the floor. Hearing none, Brent passed out paper ballots with the names of 5 nominees, which were tallied and announced after rehearsal. Lynn Urquhart-Belongia and Mary Eisenreich were elected.

Floor Question: Is it ok for the band to carry cash? Yes, it's allowed, and prudent for expenses. All required taxes are filed.

Floor Question: Is space too tight for percussion instruments? Yes, it's tight, but we have spare room at the Meyer so we are ok at this time.

Floor Question: What can be done about music stands? Mary Eisenreich will send a list for who has and who needs stands.

With no further business, the annual meeting was adjourned at 8:05pm.
